The Turls Green Bradford This curved terrace stands on the site of Provincial House, demolished in 2002. The landmark building was purpose built in the early 1970s, as the headquarters of what became Abbey National. Previously, Tyrrel Street extended across the site of the eight-storey building. The street is named after Turls Green; so is this pub which is on the site of the once-well-known Collinson's Café. For centuries, Turls Green was the area now covered by Centenary Square.
